Award-winning speaker, acclaimed entertainer, and accomplished author, Adrienne Bulinski will show you how to walk and chew gum all the way up your staircase of life. While the world may look a little different in the aftermath of a pandemic, Adrienne is an expert in helping people see their hardships as a springboard and not an anchor. From high school auditoriums to corporate boardrooms, Adrienne has assisted countless individuals regain their focus in life, their understanding of their purpose, not to mention help regain the simple joy of life as it was intended.

With more than a decade of experience on the stage, and multiple decades working the trenches, Adrienne is creating a movement of positive change, one attitude/speech at a time. Adrienne's messages are influenced by a vast array of experiences including competing for Miss America as Miss Kansas 2005, performing with the USO Show Troupe, living and performing in New York City, re-learning how to walk at the age of 24, receiving a full ankle replacement at 30, and the list goes on. Adrienne holds a Degree in Journalism and Mass Communications as well as a Minor in Theatre from the University of Kansas. She is also the recipient of the prestigious "Speaker of the Year" Award for her dynamic programs.

Brian Imbus is a professional speaker, hypnotist, and mentalist. He has delivered hundreds of keynote presentations across the country. His approach is unique due to the fact that he uses entertainment to grab the attention of his audience. His first interest in performing came at the age of four when he received his first magic kit for Christmas. He practiced every day until the kit literally wore out. His love for travel began after joining the military and traveling the world after high school. Brian served in the US Navy for 4 years, then attended Northern Illinois University where he graduated with a degree in Management Information Systems. Brian worked briefly in the corporate field before focusing his full attention to entertaining and delivering keynote presentations to audiences all over the country. When Brian is not traveling, speaking, and entertaining, he enjoys playing golf with his son and spending time with his family.
