

Without (0:30)

A game without a crowd is just a scrimmage. A performance without an audience is just a rehearsal. Without your presence, high school sports and the performing arts aren't possible. Ensure that these essential extracurricular activities continue to enrich the lives of students in South Dakota. Purchase a ticket to your local high school's game or performance.

This message presented by the SDHSAA and the South Dakota Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association.