

Get Back In The Game (0:30)

Man, I loved playing high school sports growing up. It's fun being a fan now; don't get me wrong, but sitting in the stands feels like I'm missing out on all the action. You know, I wanted to get back in the game, so I signed up to be a high school official. It takes me back to my playing days. I'm supporting students and I get paid to make the big calls.

Do you want to see the game up close? Sign up to become an official in South Dakota at <https://www.highschoolofficials.com>.