

Match Format and Scoring

Outdoors:

Championship round matches (excluding semi final and final round)	2 out of 3 sets – with match tie-break in lieu of deciding set, no ad scoring
Championship matches (semi final and final round)	Full 2 out of 3 sets, no ad scoring
3 rd place through 5 th place matches (includes 5 th place semis)	10 game pro-set – no ad scoring with the use of the set tie-break
Consolation matches	10 game pro set – no ad scoring with the use of the set tie-break

Indoors: Format is subject to change due to weather conditions and will be mutually decided by the Meet Director and SDHSAA.

Note – Additional matches (3rd, 5th, consolation) may be played indoors if time permits and courts are available.

Championship round matches	2 out of 3 with match tie-break in lieu of the deciding set, no ad scoring
Consolation matches	8 game pro-set – no ad scoring with the use of the set tie-break

*Set tie-break (1st to 7, win by 2)

Match tie-break (1st to 10, win by 2)

When moving from indoor back to outdoor tennis, the same format as used indoors will be used until the entire round has been completed at a specific flight.

State Meet Tennis Scoring – Division and Advancement Points

Place	Singles Points						Doubles Points
	#1	#2	#3	#4	#5	#6	#1	#2	#3
Champion	20	18	16	14	12	10	24	20	16
1 st Round Win	10	9	8	7	6	5	12	10	8
2 nd Round Win	30	27	24	21	18	15	36	30	24
Consolation Champ	7	6	5	4	3	2	8	6	4
3 rd	8	7	6	5	4	3	9	7	5
5 th	3.5	3	2.5	2	1.5	1	4	3	2

- For all place matches, points are awarded for each match played and won.
- On the championship side, a player will receive half the normal points for a first round win. Additional second round points (50% more) will be awarded to the winner of the eight matches in the second round of championship play. Players receiving first round byes must win their 2nd round championship match or 2nd round consolation match before receiving points for the bye(s).
- Players receiving a bye in the second round of consolation must win their 3rd round consolation match before receiving points for the consolation bye and the first round championship bye.