

Stars and Stripes (:60)

High school sports are as American as apple pie. Going to a game or meet is a chance to see the stars of tomorrow shine today. But as anybody who has ever attended a high school sporting event in South Dakota knows, you can't have the stars without the stripes.

High schools are currently looking for new officials in almost every sport. Who looks good in stripes? Anybody looking for a way to stay connected to a sport they love. If you like the idea of giving back to your community while earning a few extra bucks, chances are you'd look good in stripes too. We want to hear from you. We need to hear from you. No officials means no games. No stripes means no stars, and what kind of America would that be? South Dakota needs more high school officials.
