2013 HIGH SCHOOL PRESS CONVENTION

South Dakota State University, Brookings

April 30, 2013

The 2013 High School Press Convention was held on the SDSU campus in Brookings on April 30th. Nearly 200 high school journalists, and 23 advisors from 19 schools attended the convention.

The keynote speaker for the convention was Mr. Kevin Slimp, Journalist and Columnist from Knoxville, TN. Students and advisors also attended sessions presented by students from the SDSU Journalism and Mass Communication Department. Workshops included newspaper and yearbook design, writing, and photography. Advisors were able to meet during the convention to discuss questions and concerns relating to high school journalism as well.

The Convention concluded with the awards presentation in the afternoon. The awards are listed below.

FOUNDER'S AWARD

Each year, during the Annual High School Press Convention, the Founder's award is presented to an individual in recognition of outstanding service to high school journalism education through the teaching of the principles of good journalism in South Dakota. The recipient of the award is selected by the Journalism Advisory Committee of the South Dakota High School Activities Association.

The 2013 Founder's Award was presented to Mary Tranberg, retired Sioux Falls Lincoln Yearbook Advisor, after 28 years of working with student journalists.
